GOLD IN OREGON .- A letter to the Newark Ad vertiser states that the writer is now washing out gold at the rate of ten dollars an hour. He fur-

"Two others by the side of me, with the assistance of a squaw, (for an Indian man is not worth his food,) are making fifty dollars a day. We will have thousands of inhabitants here in a few months, as gold is everywhere in this vicinity. All the soldiers in the garrison are at work, making from $20 a day upwards, but none less than $16. No person would, work for the gold until my partner tried; and after two or three hours' work he was offered $35 for what was in his machine, which he took. The next day he worked about four hours, and again sold his sand for $40. On investigation, it was found that he had sold $60 worth of gold for $35, and $60 worth for $40. We have taken out $80 worth in two hours and forty minutes, then let escape $10 worth. This was the first mining done here, and now it is ascertained that it will yield a rich reward everywhere along the beach." ther says:

THE ROYAL FAMILY OF RUSSIA.—The follow this time, when Russia is thrusting her ursine nose into the politics of Europe:

the two daughters and the son of his brother Ivan, and the murderer (it is asserted, according to more than one of the annalists of his reign) by his own hand of his son Alexis. He was himself murdered by Menzikoff, (a name that has again risen up in history,) the favorite of his wife Catharine, and who, when united to Peter, was already the wife of a living husband; and their children declared afterwards incapable of reigning, because born in sin. Anne, the eldest daughter of Ivan, put fourteen thousand Russians to death, and banished twice as many. A revolution displaced the younger Ivan to put on the throne Elizabeth, daughter of Peter I., and her reign was remarkable for her drunkenness and debauchery. Peter III., her successor, was notoriously the off-spring of crime, and was dethroned and strangled by his wife, Catharine II., the same infamous woman who had assassinated the dethroned Emperor man who had assassinated the dethroned Emperor Ivan, and whose own son, Paul, the father of the present Emperor Nicholas, was strangled by his

A Hotel .- Some idea of the expenses attending upon a large hotel may be gathered from the fol-lowing, from a correspondent of the New Bedford Standard, who writes about the United States

'The hotel occupies 38,000 square feet of ground, has 280 rooms, easy accommodations for 550 persons, and capable of lodging and boarding 800. There are 130 male and female employes divided into a dozen different departments, each having a responsible head—such as dining, rotundary, office, porter, kitchen, baker, &c.

"The amount of food daily consumed is enormous; 400 pounds of animal food, 600 pounds of flour, 100 pounds of butter, 100 dozen hens' eggs, 6 bushels of potatoes, and 50 gallons of milk. The asparagus for one Sabbath cost $40! Lights cost asparagus for one Sanbath cost $40: Lights cost mearly $6,000 per annum. Water spouts into almost every room in the house, at an expense to the landlord of $360 per year. To cook all this food and keep so many persons warm, it takes 600 tons of coal, 75 cords of wood, $1,000 worth of charges?

LEAD PIPE .- Some one who is interested in tin s endeavoring to get up an alarm about the dan gers of lead pipe for conducting water. Dr. Brande says: "Perfectly pure water, such as distilled water, put into a clean leaden vessel, and exposed to the air, soon oxydizes it and corrodes it, and delicate tests discover oxyde of lead in soexert no such solvent power. The carbonates and sulphates in such water, though in very minute quantities, entirely prevent its solvent power."

Horse Mackenel.—Mr. William Alexander, while fishing near Rock Cod Ledge, about thirteen miles from Portland, caught a horse mackerel weighing 800 lbs., 10 feet long, and 7 in circumference. He took him with a cod hook, and, cumference. He took him with a country worrying him out, finally secured him. There being no one with him in the boat but his little being no one with him to a schooner, near, be boy, he had to tow him to a schooner, near, be-fore he could take him in. It is a splendid fish, resembling in all its parts a mackerel, but on a giant scale.—Portland Argus.

POTENTATES AT LOGGERHEADS.—In conformity with a bull from the Pope, the Archbishop of Treves has ordered that "in all cases of marriages between parties of different confessions that the Evangelical (Protestant) bridegroom shall take an oath to the bishep, or any one of his clergy whom he may appoint, by which he shall bind himself to devote the children he may have to the Roman Catholic Church." Otherwise the marriage is forbidden. The King of Power of Conference and Tennessee Election.

The King of Prussia has just issued a general order, declaring that he will dismiss from his service any officer who may take the stipulated oath, "degrading to the man and to the Evangelical Confession." In this state of affair, it is exident that there will be but little mixing of it is evident that there will be but little mixing of religions connubially .- Phila. Ledger.

FANNY FERN ON SCHOOL-MISTRESSES .- I Was never on an august school committee, but if I was I'd make a sine que non that no school marm I'd make a sine qua non that no school marm should be inaugurated who had not been a married mother. I don't believe in old maids; they know very well that they havn't fulfilled their family destiny, and I wouldn't have them wreaking their billous vengeance on my urchins, if I had any. No woman gets the acid effectually out of her temper till she has taken matrimony "the natural way."

PROTESTANT CHRISTIANITY is said to be making great progress in Syria, in consequence of the labors of the American Protestant missionaries, and the influence of their schools, publications, and religious services. Copies of the Bible in Arabic have been widely distributed, and may now be seen in most of the villages in the Durse mountains, where controversial discussions on religious subjects are very common, particularly among the lower orders of the people. As yet, however, the only Protestant congregation dis-tractly recognised by the government is in Has-beya, at the foot of Mount Hermon, and numbers about two hundred members.

BALTIMORE CORRESPONDENCE.

BALTIMORE, August 9, 1853. Our city was visited yesterday afternoon with he most tremendous storm of wind, hail, and rain that I have ever witnessed. It commenced about six o'clock in the evening, and lasted only about ten minutes, but in that time a great dea of damage was done, especially to buildings in course of erection. Several warehouses on the wharf were much damaged, their roofs being taken off, &c. Fortunately the storm was very limited in its extent, not being felt on the bay or which fell were in many instances as large as moderately-sized hickory-nuts.

The Democracy are in a state of considerable excitement to-day in regard to their State convention, which meets to-morrow. Most of the dele gates are already in the city, and the claims of the different aspirants are undergoing a thorough canvass. It seems to be conceded that Mr. ing amiable family picture may be interesting at Mitchell stands no chance for the nomination of Governor, and that the contest will be between Colonel George W. Hughes and H. S. G. Deplorable Catastrophe.

Рипласелента, August 9—10 р. m.—We have rumor here of a terrible collision on the Camlen and Amboy Railroad, said to have occurred this evening, not far the other side of Camden, by which at least a dozen or fifteen lives were lost, and many persons seriously injured. Eight females are said to be among the dead. I am unable to procure further particulars at present, nor have two minutes and forty-seven and a half seconds been able to verify the above. I fear, however, it is too true.

Arrival of the Star of the West_Tw Weeks Later from California.

New York, August 9.—The steamer Star of the West, with San Francisco dates of July 16th, arrived this afternoon at 2 o'clock. She brings 400 passengers, $537,000 in gold on freight, and $500,000 in the hands of her passengers. She $500,000 in the hands of her passengers. She connected with the Brother Jonathan, which left San Francisco at 3 p. m. on the 16th. The mail steamer John L. Stephens left San Francisco on the morning of the 16th for Panama, with $1,500,000 in gold.

The specie by the Star of the West is consigned as follows: American Exchange Bank, $200,000; Duncan, Sherman & Co., $200,000;

Drexel & Co, $70,000; Burgoyne & Plume, $30, 000; Nelson & Robinson, $21,000. [SECOND DESPATCH.]

New York, August 9.—Lola Montes was re-ently married to Mr. Lall, late of the San Francisco Whig.
The towns of French, Corval, and Ophir have been destroyed by fire. The loss is one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. A brother of the noted robber Joaquín has been caught; he promised to lead his captors to a place where Joaquin and band were concealed.

Louisville, August 9.—Five Democrats and five Whigs are elected to Congress from Kentucky. The Whigs have a large majority in the Legislature.

Alabama Election.

Mobile, August 9 .- It is now ascertained that the following gentlemen have been certainly elected to Congress: First district, Mr. Phillips, Democrat; second, Mr. Abercrombie, Independent third, Mr. Harris, Democrat; seventh, Mr. Dowdell, Democrat. The Legislature will have a large Democratic majority.

Terrible Ravages of the Fever-Persons Leaving the City—Suspension of Business.

New Orleans, August 6.—The yellow fever continues to rage here with unabated violence. The interments yesterday amounted to one hundred and fifty. To-day were buried one hundred and thirty victims of the disease. Those who by any possible means can are leaving the city every hour. In fact it is now almost deserted, and ye the fever is raging terribly. Business has been almost entirely suspended—great distress and con-sternation prevail.

From the Fisheries. Boston, August 8.—Fishing vessels arrived at Gloucester report that mackerel are scarce, and that several Cape Cod vessels have returned with but small fares. The British officers are repreented as being more civil in their intercourse with American fishermen, but they keep a sharp with American okout in all the bays and coves. The steame Devastation had gone to Quebec to make repairs A United States steam-frigate had been seen off GREENOUGH's STATUE, the "Triumph of Civilzed Life," will be taken from the hold of the Attar Gull, in the course of to-day or to-morrow, as we have been informed. The group is in four separate pieces of marble, the largest of which eighs ten tons. Clark Mills has been employed to direct the removal of the beautifully-chiselled markle from the wharf, at the navy yard, to the eastern portico, and to elevate it to the position it is to occupy—a height of twenty-one feet from the ground. Mr. Mills was yesterday engaged in arin the country to the north of us. The hail-stones ranging a derric, composed of the largest-sized pine timber, preliminary to the hoisting operagroup shall be fairly located.

> LIBRARY OF CONGRESS .- A large invoice of ooks has recently been received from Europe for the library. Yesterday the President of the United States, accompanied by Messrs. Marcy, Guth rie, Davis, Dobbin, and Cushing, paid it a visit.

> Over Vigilant.-Recently, a warrant was ssued against a well-known and prominent attorney of this city, by Justice Crandall, for racing his horse at the Navy Yard one day last week The case was ruled for trial yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, before Justice Thompson, but before that hour arrived, the officer of the Sixth Ward who lodged the information hurried to the justice last named to inform him that he had mistaken the offender against the municipal statute. And so he had, for the aforesaid attorney had not been on horseback in the neighborhood of the Navy Yard for the space of eighteen months. Some investigation will probably be made by him into the circumstances attending the issuing of the

> We have been informed that on the same day and at about the same hour the supposed racing took place the President of the United States, or some gentleman resembling him, accompanied by a friend, was at the Navy Yard, on high-mettled horses, difficult to restrain. Whether or not the vigilant police officer will prefer a complaint against the President remains to be seem.

THE TROTTING RACE over the Columbia Course vesterday afternoon, was largely attended, and nuch interest was manifested in the proceedings, as usual on such occasions. The race was between Sorrel Fanny, of Baltimore, entered by J. L. Doty, and Kentuck, of Philadelphia, entered by George Nelson. One mile and repeat, to skele ton wagons. A lover of the turf who was present informs us that Fanny won both heats. Time and two minutes and fifty-six seconds.

An Incident occurred at the office of the City Collector yesterday somewhat enlivening the usually serious proceedings of money payments. A genteely-dressed colored woman came in and wanted to pay her taxes. When asked what her name was she obstinately refused to tell it, although the clerk endeavored to impress upon her mind the necessity of doing so. She entered into an argument to show that she was not obliged to answer the question; for her name, she insisted was on the "re-cord," as the gentleman could learn; and she had no "ideg" of "being made fun She seemed to regard the interrogatory as rather disrespectful to one of her age, and the mother of a large family of children. There was no doubt of her earnestness. If she had been asked how old she was, a refusal to answer would have been excusable, even in one of her complexion. Much merriment was occasioned among the bystanders, of whom we happened to be one Finally an individual present told who she was when her bill was presented and promptly paid lacking three cents, which she promised to pay next July, not having the "zact change" in he 'puss.'

Superstition .- A friend informs us that h recently observed a man cutting a piece of rope into small bits, which he distributed to his companions, who eagerly received them. The party thus engaged were foreigners. On inquiring into the object of these proceedings, we learned that the rope had the peculiar property of curing toothache and other maladies, a man having been hanged with it!

Not long since an outlandish individual itiner ated hereabouts selling amulets to cure disease as well as to prevent them, and he was tolerably successful in the sale of his wares.

At several places in this city we have noticed horse-shoes over the doors. This is to keep the humble premises sacred from the intrusion of witches. Salt sprinkled on the pavement is said to be equally as effective!

As IT SHOULD NOT AND AS IT SHOULD BE. We have repeatedly condemned the carelessnes of superintendents of street-excavations for sewer or other purposes, in not properly guarding their dikes to prevent accidents, which in consequence frequently occur, both to man and horse. But we are glad to record an exception to this reprehensible neglect. On Monday night, the earth having during the day been opened for the insertion of gas-pipes in D street north, between Ninth and Tenth streets, lamps were placed on the line as beacon-lights. This mode of warning against danger should be observed in all similar cases. and likewise-during dark nights-where building materials block up public thoroughfares.

THE CENTRE MARKET was yesterday supplied plenteously with all the products of the season, on an average at prices a shade lower than former quotations. Yearly the number of venders inreases, thus creating a necessity for enlarged acommodations, as the long lines of stands without the building conclusively show. The exposure of vegetables to the sun does not improve their quality, but gives them a degree of toughness, beside detracting from their flavor. We trust, however, that the idea of a new market-house will soon become a reality.

THE CORNER-STONE of the Sixth Presbyterian Church, to be located on the Island, will be laid this afternoon, between four and five o'clock, with Masonic and religious ceremonies.

THE AQUEDUCT .- The Georgetown Independent calls the attention of the proper authorities to the condition of the Aqueduct; and states that the frame-work is constantly settling. A small sum judicially applied now might save thousands hereafter, as well as prevent any interruption in the canal in case any accident should take place.

ITHE CRIMINAL COURT was occupied yesterday with various cases of assaults. Two boys, convicted of malicious mischief, were each sentenced

Vou will find my affidavit attached to the fol Y lowing statement:
I address this appeal to you instead of the President or the Secretary of the Department of the Indent or the Secretary of the Department of the Indent or the Secretary of the Department of the Indent or the Secretary of the Department of the Indent or the Secretary of the Department of the Indent or the Secretary of the Department of the Indent or the Secretary of the Department of the Indent or the Secretary of the Department of the Indent or I dent or the Secretary of the Department of the In-terior, for two reasons: First, I was a clerk in the public departments during four years of Mr. Polk's administration, and before I was here twelve months I became perfectly satisfied that dancing attendance to big bugs was entirely uncongenial to my taste; and secondly, when I go to you I al-ways feel at home.

attendance to big bugs was entirely uncongental to my taste; and secondly, when I go to you I always feel at home.

After the last Presidential election was over, I made my resppearance in Washington, and a week prior to the first of December a Democratic Senatorial friend of mine had a promise that, at the latter time, I should have a temporary clerkship in the General Land Office. This promise was from the Commissioner, John Wilson; and at or about the appointed time I sat in. On the 4th instant I was sent for by the Commissioner, and on going into his room was informed by him and his chief clerk that they required of me a very large addition to my work, by way of helping others. I returned to my room, and finding about an hour's work on my desk, I despatched that, and then wrote the following:

"General Land Office, August 4, 1853.

"Sta: With your knowledge, my Whig predecessor, at 81,200, allowed his desk to get two years behind hand; while I, an invalid, for $300 less, keep it up. This is all that I shall submit to. "Respectfully. GEO. W. KIMBERLY."

What's sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander "Respectfully, GEO. W. KIMBERLY. "Hon. John Wilson, Commissioner."

And the next morning I wrote the following:

"General Land Office, August 5, 1863.

"Siz: In addition to having my salary cut down on the let ultimo, I was yesterday ordered to do the work of other clerks. This I refused to do; and that my refusal might go upon the records, whence it might be called up and apeak for itself, I put it in writing, and herewith transmit you a cony, to be filed in the Department, accompanying this letter.

"I can prove—partly by the records, and partly by the Commissioner's own acknowledgment—every fact stated in my note of refusal.

"Respectfully, GEO, W. KIMBERLY.
"Hon. R. McClelland, Secretary."

And on the second day I received the following And the next morning I wrote the following:

And on the second day I received the following dismissal:

"General Land Office, Acquet 6, 1853.
"Siz. I received your note of the 4th instant, and deem it worthy of no further notice than to say that the allegation therein, in reference to myself, is wholly destifute of any foundation in fact.

"As the chief clerk has reported to me, however, that you have refused to perform the duties as signed you by him, you have thus virtually dissolved your connexion with this office, and your services will be considered as dispensed with from and after this date. Respectfully,

"JOHN WILSON, Commissioner.

The first paragraph of this letter is a denial of Wilson that he knew of my predeceasor's short-comings, and permitted it without complaint, or at least without removing him. I therefore now state, under oath, that during the latter part of June last, in an official interview with the Commissioner, John Wilson, he admitted it. I not only swear to it myself, but if I could compel the attendance of more than a dozen of the most respectable clerks in the Land Office into a court, and upon the witness stand over your world. and upon the witness stand, every one would swear that the following facts were notoriously proverbial in every room of the Bureau:

proverbial in every room of the Bureau:

First, my predecesser was not, upon an average, more than once a week at his desk; secondly, when he was there he very seldom undertook to do any thing; thirdly, when he did he made an awful botch of it; fourthly, John Wilson, the Commissioner, knew all about it; but fifthly, my predecessor once wrote a book, and he dedicated it thus: "To the Hon. Alexander H. H. Stuart, Scretary of the Department of the Interior, a Western Virginian by birth, education, residence, and sentiment."

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by the act entitled "An act relating to dogs," approved 25th July, 1829, and the act amending the same, approved 27th April, 1828, it is provided that "whenever it shall be made appear to the satisfaction of the Mayor that any animal of the dog kind within this city shall be "deemed and considered mad," it shall be "the duty of the Mayor to issue his proclamation requiring that all animals of the dog kind shall be kept confined for such number of days as he shall deem expedient and proper, to state in said proclamation, not exceeding ninety days; and it shall be the duty of the city constables, and lawful for any other person, to kill and bury all and every dog going at large contrary to the said proclamation," &c.

Now, therefore, it having been made to appear to my satisfaction that there are "animals of the dog kind" mad within this city, I do hereby give notice, to all whom it may concern, that "all animals of the dog kind" in this city are required to be kept confined for and during the term of sixly days from the date hereof; and the police officers of this Corporation are required to enforce the law in respect to all such as may be found going at large contrary to this proclamation.

Given under my hand at the Mayor's office, in the city of Washington, this 29th day of June, 1853.

Wholesale Ice Cream Depot—C street, rear of Brown's Hotel

THE SUBSCRIBER, in removing to his new place of business, returns his sincere thanks to his friends and the public for the very liberal patronage extended to him at his Saloon on the Avenue, during his sojourn in that locality. Having from a press of business, and an increased demand for his famous Ice Cream, been compelled to abandon the retail business, and attend entirely to that of the wholesale, he has closed his well-known Saloon, and removed his depot to the above-mentioned street, and in the store formerly occupied by Hatch & Co. as an Oil and Camphine Establishment, where he respectfully informs the public that he will be prepared to furnish them with Creams of all colors, and of the richest flavors, at the shortest notice. He has attached to his depot Creams of all colors, and of the richest flavors, at the shortest notice. He has attached to his depot an Ice Cream Express wagon, in which the article will be sent to any part of the city to moulds of any size, and in any given quantity. Having just received an excellent assortment of moulds from Paris, Dinner Parties, Tea Parties, Balls, Excursions, Pic nics, Ice Cream Saloons, &c., &c., served in a superior style and with despatch.
